You are responsible for submitting your final artwork based on the Artwork Submission Guidelines. As you will be supplying the design, we cannot guarantee the quality of your printed artwork, however all artwork is printed at 300 dpi. If you submit artwork that is outside of the artwork submission guidelines a $50 charge will be required to resubmit your new artwork. Except for the back and the inside the cover pages, the location of your advertisement within the program will be decided by HMI, however we will attempt to not place you beside a competitor. There are no refunds after the artwork submission deadline date, so please submit your artwork early, and contact us if you have any questions. HMI reserves the right to accept or reject any artwork design or content.
